Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance

IAS 20 Government Grants

DEFINITION

Government grants:

- ▶ Assistance by government
- ▶ In the form of transfers of resources to an entity
- ▶ In return for past or future compliance with certain conditions relating to the operating activities of the entity
- ▶ Exclude forms of government assistance which cannot reasonably have a value placed on them and which cannot be distinguished from the normal trading transactions of the entity.

SCOPE

The standard does not deal with:

- ▶ Government assistance that is provided for an entity in the form of benefits that are available in determining taxable income or are determined or limited to the basis of income tax liability
- ▶ Government participation in the ownership of an entity
- ▶ Government grants covered by IAS 41 Agriculture.

TYPES OF GOVERNMENT GRANTS

GRANTS RELATED TO INCOME

A grant receivable as compensation for costs, either:

- ▶ Already incurred
- ▶ For immediate financial support, with no future related costs.

Recognise as income in the period in which it is receivable.

A grant relating to income may be presented in one of two ways:

- ▶ Separately as 'other income'
- ▶ Deducted from the related expense.

GRANTS RELATED TO ASSETS

A grant relating to assets may be presented in one of two ways:

- ▶ As deferred income (and released to profit or loss when related expenditure impacts profit or loss)
- ▶ By deducting the grant from the asset's carrying amount.

NON-MONETARY GRANTS

Non-monetary grants, such as land or other resources, are usually accounted for at fair value, although recording both the asset and the grant at a nominal amount is permitted.

Grants are recognised when both there is reasonable assurance:

- ▶ the entity will comply with the conditions attached to the grant, and
- ▶ The grant will be received

GRANTS RELATED TO ASSETS

The grant is recognised as income over the period necessary to match it with the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate on a systematic basis and should not be credited directly to equity.

DISCLOSURE

- ▶ Accounting policy adopted for grants, including method of statement of financial position presentation
- ▶ Nature and extent of grants recognised in the financial statements
- ▶ An indication of other forms of government assistance from which the entity has directly benefited
- ▶ Unfulfilled conditions and contingencies attaching to recognised grants.

The BDO network (referred to as the 'BDO network' or the 'Network') is an international network of independent public accounting, tax and advisory firms which are members of BDO International Limited and perform professional services under the name and style of BDO (hereafter 'BDO member firms'). BDO International Limited is a UK company limited by guarantee. It is the governing entity of the BDO network.

Service provision within the BDO network in connection with corporate reporting and IFRS Accounting Standards (comprising International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, and Interpretations developed by the IFRS Interpretations Committee and the former Standing Interpretations Committee), and other documents, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board and IFRS Sustainability Disclosure Standards as issued by the International Sustainability Standards Board, is provided by BDO IFR Advisory Limited, a UK registered company limited by guarantee. Service provision within the BDO network is coordinated by Brussels Worldwide Services BV, a limited liability company incorporated in Belgium.

Each of BDO International Limited, Brussels Worldwide Services BV, BDO IFR Advisory Limited and the BDO member firms is a separate legal entity and has no liability for another entity's acts or omissions. Nothing in the arrangements or rules of the BDO network shall constitute or imply an agency relationship or a partnership between BDO International Limited, Brussels Worldwide Services BV, BDO IFR Advisory Limited and/or the BDO member firms. Neither BDO International Limited nor any other central entities of the BDO network provide services to clients.

BDO is the brand name for the BDO network and for each of the BDO member firms.
